We know that doing business in India entails complex procedures and many bureaucratic hurdles. One of the biggest challenges faced by entrepreneurs today is the massive amount of red tape that they need to comply with.

Though using professional services i.e. hiring lawyer and accountant, one can save time and help ensure that the process goes smoothly, but, as the founder, it is always better to have a clear understanding on the statutory requirements he or she needs to meet annually, periodically or during the time of initiation of his or her business.

The session for entrepreneurs will deal with some of the fundamental issues mentioned below:

- 1. Incorporating New company*
- 2. Mandatory Statutory Compliances*
- 3. Accounting and Legal Formalities to be Observed*
- 4. Periodic Mandatory Compliances*

The workshop while dealing with the subjects above would try to frame the questions for each company that they need to clarify and understand on one-to-one basis. This may subsequently be dealt with as per specific requirements during next session with Mr. Bhattacharya, with prior appointment.
